

Please do not take away my excellent independent ISP (zzapp.org), on whom I have been relying for the most conscientious service of my e-mail account and website for many years! He has never let me down, and I would be very unhappy if I had to change to a non-independent ISP, who, I believe would not be as personally interested in customers as an independent ISP.

Sincerely, Lilli Vincenz, PhD